FRIDAY EVENING. NOV. 4, 1904.

Threatens to Cowhide Thaw. Harry K. Thaw and Miss Nesbitt, the chorus girl companion of his latest escapades, may be on the way to Pittsgone to the smoky town, they are likely to have a warm reception. Dispatches from Pittsburg say that Mrs. Holman, mother of Miss Nesbitt, threatens to horsewhip Thaw the first opportunity she gets. The fact that her daughter continues in Them's company after her sne gets. The fact that her daughter continues in Thaw's company after he has publicly repudiated her as his wife has aroused Mrs. Holman's ire to the boiling point. She is reported to have said that Thaw should be cowhided and her daughter should be completed. her daughter should be spanked. She expresses the belief, however, that Thaw and her daughter are really married.

Thaw's family has completely withdrawn from society since the public interest in Harry Thaw's actions became inflamed by the newspaper accounts of his alleged honeymoon. The reported flitting of the couple from New York late Wednesday was untrue, and must have been inspired by the pair in order to give them a breathin, spell.

Mr. Thaw, resplendent in fine lineu and broadcloth, and Miss Nesbitt, wearing the famous ermine cloak that has ing the famous ermine cloak that has caused more than one of her former sisters of the footlights to swoon with envy, occupied a box at the Lyric Theator in New York Wednesday night, and seemed to have enough buoyancy of spirit left to enjoy the acting of Otis Skinner in "The Harvester."

After having been firmly requested to pull the uncertain stakes they had driven in a handsome suite in the Hotel Cumberland, the remarkable young couple fled into the labyrinth or the greater city, and by means of whirlwind auto mobile dashes and turious cab drives managed to elude the inquisitive.

Their trunks remained until a late hour in the Cumberland, when they were whisked away under cover of darkness. A cabman reported that he had taken Miss Nesbitt to the Grand Central depot, where she had boarded a train for Niagara Falls. If so, she must have either abandoned the train at the Harlem station, or else never got aboard of

J. A. Gulledge, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Drug-

Chronic Diarrhoea Cured.

Mr. Walter Richardson, of Trout-ville, Va., had an attack of diarrhoea that came near ending his life. His physician had failed to relieve him and the disease had become chronic when he began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It soon cured him and he now recommends that preparation whenever an opportunity offers. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., drug-

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.
